The screenshot shows the Princeton Theological Seminary website homepage. At the top, the seminary's logo and name are displayed. Below the logo is a navigation menu with links for HOME, PTS COMMUNITY, BLACKBOARD, and NEWS. A secondary navigation bar includes links for ABOUT PTS, ACADEMICS, ADMISSIONS, ALUMNI/AE, CONTINUING EDUCATION, LIBRARY, PUBLICATIONS, PTS PEOPLE, and GIVE TO PTS. The main content area features a large banner for 'The Bicentennial Campaign' with the sub-header 'Our New Library'. Below this is a section titled 'STUDENT' with a 'wineskin' logo and a link to 'Read Wineskin online! Wineskin is back, now a new online weekly calendar of events at PTS!'. To the right, a 'NEWS' section lists several articles, including 'Annual Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Lecture February 4', 'Philosopher and Theologian Diogenes Allen Dies', and 'Latin American Scholar and Sociologist of Religion Joins Princeton Seminary Faculty'. At the bottom, there are links for PRESS RELEASES, NEWS ROOM, PUBLIC EVENTS CALENDAR, PHOTO GALLERIES, and INDIANA MAGAZINE. The footer contains copyright information for Princeton Theological Seminary and its various departments.

The purpose of the Society is to promote scholarly work in Christian ethics and in the relation of Christian ethics to other traditions of ethics, and to social, economic, political and cultural problems; to encourage and improve the teaching of these fields in colleges, universities and theological schools; and to provide a community of discourse and debate for those engaged professionally within these general fields.

A non-denominational scholarly association, the Society of Christian Ethics draws its 950 members from the faculties of universities, colleges, and theological schools primarily from the United States, Canada, and Europe. The growth and vitality of the Society of Christian Ethics reflect the maturing of the academic discipline of Christian social ethics.

BLACK CHURCH STUDIES

Center for Black Church Studies Mission Statement

The Center for Black Church Studies at Princeton Theological Seminary exists to highlight the theological and religious witness, which arises out of the African American and African Diaspora Christian experience. The center helps to prepare men and women for vocational ministry or scholarly pursuits shaped by a wider knowledge and deeper appreciation of black life within American and global Christianity.

EDLER HAWKINS CIVIL ACTIVIST WITH HIS MINISTRY

Date:

Sat, 1908-06-13

Edler Garnett Hawkins was born on this date in 1908. He was an African American minister and civil rights activist through the Presbyterian Church.

Hawkins, born in the Bronx, New York, was the son of Albert and Annie Lee Hawkins. He received his bachelor of divinity degree from Union Theological Seminary in 1938. Hawkins became the first pastor of Saint Augustine Presbyterian Church in the Bronx. In 1964, he became the first African-American moderator of the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church. As a member of the Presbyterian Interracial Council, Hawkins promoted involvement in the Civil Rights Movement.

He retired in 1970 to join the faculty of Princeton Theological Seminary as professor of Black studies. Edler Hawkins died on December 18, 1977.

Dear Mr Mchie,

 Our history as a people is history that needs to be told, that needs to be learned and that needs to be recorded. If we don't do it will never be done correctly. If we don't do it, it won't be preserved. If we don't do it our children will never know their real value and worth. I think the Registry is an instrument to do all of that and to share it in ways that are productive, creative, and imaginative for people who really want to know about*

In The Pulpit

This month, Rev. Joseph Love, pastor of Union Hill AME Church in nearby Wacissa, FL. will be the keynote speaker during a special program to be held on Saturday July 29 in honor of the Pastor's Appreciation Day. As well as our own Pastor, other noted pulpit occupants will include a guest speaker who will be presiding on the 2nd Sunday while Pastor Bell attends the General Conference in Cincinnati and those who will be assembling for this year's Vacation Bible School--to be hosted by Flipper on July 17-21.

In Their Own Words

"I was just reading and getting information so that our church can follow your lead and (get) online as well. I'm 14 years old and have attended most of the functions talked about on your website. I want to tell you (what a good) job the Church did on this site

To God Be the Glory!

My, here we are at our third issue. Amen! The Lord certainly deserves all the Praise as we continue on our quest not only to enlighten, but inspire you, our readers, in His word and in the many wonderful ways we are blessed at Flipper. In this issue we are most excited to introduce to some and present to others our beloved pastor Rev. Melvin Bell, who is not only celebrating his 24th anniversary as a man of the cloth this month, but will also be the guest of honor during our Pastor's Appreciation Day program on July 29. Additionally, it is indeed General Conference 2000 time. As our church leaders and various delegates prepare to make their way to Cincinnati to consecrate the by-laws of the AMEC for the next four years later this month, we feel now is the appropriate time to introduce Praise's newest page--Lay News. Here we intend to bring you up-to-date on the progress of our dedicated Lay Organization, presided over by Sis. Beulah Gregory, as well as school you on the many fascinating aspects of the AME Church. We earnestly hope Lay News will only add to your overall enjoyment of our humble newsletter. Well, thank you for your continued fellowship and support and, of course, if you live in or plan to visit our beautiful city of Tallahassee, don't forget to stop by and help us sing His praises for--at the "Little Church in the Bond Community Where Everybody is Somebody Special!"--you are always most certainly welcome.

An Itinerant Elder in Jesus Christ

This month our wonderful pastor, Reverend Melvin Bell celebrates his 26th anniversary as a man of the cloth! In keeping with this wonderful occasion, we here at Praise would like to tell you a little bit about the blessed life and great accomplishments of one of God's most dedicated messengers. We hope that in reading you will discover what we Flipperites already know--Pastor Bell is truly a gifted orator, a learned scholar, a loyal friend, a devoted father, and a compassionate and patient shepherd to his flock. Perhaps it is so that the Pastor's Aid Board has chosen this month to sponsor this year's Pastor's Appreciation Day--to be held on Saturday, July 29 at 7pm. (see What's Happening!) All the same, Flipperites need very little prompting when it comes to giving Pastor Bell his due "props"! To find out why, please read Melvin Bell: An Itinerant Elder in Jesus Christ.

Association of Black Seminarians (ABS)

The Association of Black Seminarians (ABS) of Princeton Theological Seminary is committed to the liberating word of the gospel of Jesus Christ and the interpretation of this message afresh for our contemporary age. We provide support to our seminarian African and African American brothers and sisters by creating an atmosphere for sharing our gifts and achievements; providing a communal forum for telling our personal, ethnic, and religious experiences; working together to build a network for the structure and support of our own ministries; and devoting ourselves in word and deed to the transforming message of liberation. Through our support, presence, commitment, and unity we contribute in a unique way to the life of the PTS community.

Prathia Hall

A Lifetime of Speaking Out

hen Prathia Hall ('82B, '84M, '97D) was a little girl, not tall enough to look over the top of the lectern in Mount Sharon Baptist Church in north Philadelphia, adults in the congregation lifted her up to stand on a chair or table so that she could read Scripture during the Sunday services. She was encouraged early on to make full use of one of the talents that God blessed her with—her speaking voice.

How surprised and delighted the members of that small congregation (some of whom probably remember her as a youth) were when, last year, Hall was named the top African American woman preacher by Ebony magazine!
